

SUPPLIER CODE OF CONDUCT TO ADDRESS MODERN SLAVERY

1. Objectives and operation of this Code

- 1.1 WPP AUNZ is committed to efficient, effective, economical, ethical and sustainable practices in all procurement activities in a manner that minimises and mitigates risks of modern slavery.
- 1.2 This Code sets out WPP AUNZ's expectations for the conduct of its Direct Suppliers and Subcontractors.¹ This Code is based on industry and internationally accepted principles relating to labour and human rights.
- 1.3 The Modern Slavery Act 2018 (Cth) ("the Act") requires WPP AUNZ to describe modern slavery risks within its operations and supply chains. The intention is to identify, assess and address such risks in a manner that involves consideration beyond entities with which WPP AUNZ is in a direct contractual relationship for the provision of goods and services.
- 1.4 WPP AUNZ requires all of its suppliers to comply with the provisions and principals contained in this Supplier Code of Conduct. WPP AUNZ also expects suppliers to take reasonably practicable steps towards the implementation of these requirements throughout their own supply chains.
- 1.5 In circumstances where WPP AUNZ becomes aware that suppliers have not conducted themselves consistent with the terms of this Code, WPP AUNZ reserves the right to take immediate remedial action. WPP AUNZ may from time to time ask suppliers and contractors to provide information demonstrating compliance with WPP AUNZ's Supplier Code of Conduct and reserves the right to cease the commercial relationship if the supplier fails to inform WPP AUNZ of any potential inability to comply or fail to execute remedial actions.

2 Operation of Code – existing and new suppliers

- 2.1 This Code applies to a supplier (including any subsidiaries, affiliates and subcontractors) with which WPP AUNZ enters into a relevant agreement for the supply of goods and services on a date after the commencement of the Code ("Supplier").

3 Compliance with applicable laws and regulations

- 3.1 The scope and operation of the Act, including its enforcement provisions are to be acknowledged by Suppliers to WPP AUNZ, whether that entity is located, incorporated or otherwise carries out business activities in Australia or abroad.

¹ Direct Supplier means a supplier or service provider (whether natural person, corporation or other legal entity) with whom the Supplier has a direct contractual relationship (whether express or implied) and who forms part of the Suppliers supply chains and operations. Subcontract means a supplier or service provider (whether natural person, corporation or other legal entity) who forms part of the Suppliers direct supply chains and operations other than a Direct supplier.

3.2 In circumstances where this Code may establish higher standards than the law requires and addresses issues not covered by legislation, a Supplier is expected to voluntarily agree to abide by the additional higher standards and requirements set out in this Code.

3.3 In circumstances, where an Australian or different local law, regulation or contractual obligations impose a stricter standard than this Code, those legal requirements must be complied with and prevail to the extent of any inconsistency with this Code.

4 Compliance with internationally recognised standards to social and environmental sustainability

4.1 This Code is a manifestation of WPP AUNZ's commitment to the following International Standards on labour rights and modern slavery:

- 4.1.1 United Nations (UN) Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights;
- 4.1.2 ILO Conventions 29 and 105 and Recommendation 35 (Forced and Bonded Labour);

Prevention of Modern Slavery

The Act defines 'modern slavery' as:

- a. an offence under Division 270 or 271 of the Criminal Code; or
- b. an offence under either of those Divisions if the conduct took place in Australia;
- c. trafficking in persons, as defined in Article 3 of the Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, done at New York on 15 November 2000 ([2005] ATS 27); or
- d. the worst forms of child labour, as defined in Article 3 of the ILO Convention (No. 182) concerning the Prohibition and Immediate Action for the Elimination of the Worst Forms of Child Labour, done at Geneva on 17 June 1999 ([2007] ATS 38).

This includes (but is not limited to), trafficking in persons, slavery, servitude, forced labour, forced marriage, debt bondage, the worst forms of child labour and deceptive recruiting for labour or services.

- 5.2 WPP AUNZ's suppliers agree to and adopt this definition, as a minimum standard, for the assessment of modern slavery risks within their own supply chains.
- 5.3 All work must be voluntary, and workers must be free to terminate their employment in accordance with an employment agreement provided in the workers native language. There shall be no unreasonable restrictions on workers freedom of movement including any restrictions on entering or exiting any company provided facility.

- 5.5 WPP AUNZ Suppliers shall use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that third party recruitment agencies are compliant with the provisions of this Code. Workers shall not be required to pay employers or their agents' any recruitments fees to obtain their employment. If any such fees are found to have been paid by workers, subsequent to the adoption of this Code by a WPP AUNZ supplier, they must be repaid as soon as reasonably practicable, which will generally be understood to mean within 90 days of such discovery.
- 5.6 Suppliers shall exercise due diligence on relevant materials in their supply chains. Suppliers shall develop particular due diligence policies and management systems in order to identify applicable modern slavery risks and take appropriate actions to mitigate them.

6 Child Labour

- 6.1 WPP AUNZ Suppliers shall not employ workers who are less than 15 years old, or under the minimum age for employment in the country, whichever is greater. In compliance with local laws, workers shall be compensated for overtime at pay rates greater than regular hourly rates.

8.2 The Supplier shall communicate pay structure and pay periods to all workers in their native language. Wage deductions shall not be used as a disciplinary measure. All use of temporary and outsourced labour shall be within the limits of applicable local laws.

9 Humane Treatment

9.1 The Supplier agrees that there is to be no harsh and inhumane treatment including sexual harassment, sexual abuse, corporal punishment, mental or physical coercion or verbal abuse of workers; nor is there to be the threat of any such treatment under any circumstances whatsoever. Suppliers are to ensure that disciplinary policies and procedures in support of these requirements shall be clearly defined and communicated to workers.

10 Anti-Discrimination

10.1 The Supplier shall not discriminate against any worker based on age, disability, ethnicity, gender, marital status, national origin, political affiliation, race, religion, sexual orientation, or union membership in hiring and other employment practices such as promotions, rewards, and access to training.

11 Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining

11.1 The Supplier shall respect the right of all of its workers to form and join trade unions of their own choosing, to bargain collectively and to engage in peaceful assembly, as well as giving corresponding respect to the right of workers to refrain from engaging in any such activities. Workers and/or their representatives shall be able to openly communicate and share ideas and concerns with management regarding working conditions and management practices without fear of discrimination, reprisal, intimidation or harassment.

- 12.5 The Supplier shall ensure that appropriately trained staff or independent external parties are tasked with investigating complaints in the workers native language. The Supplier shall ensure that all complaints and grievances are treated in strictest confidence and appropriate action is taken to address those complaints and remediate any finding of adverse human rights impacts.
